In consideration of allowing me to participate in the World Horseshoeing Classic on February 17-19, 2011 at the Kentucky Horseshoeing School In Richmond, KY, I agree to the following and I am doing so on my own accord. I give this acknowledgment freely and knowingly and I represent and warrant that I am physically and mentally fit and that, as a result, able to participate and I do hereby assume responsibility for my own well-being. I am fully aware that this is a potentially HAZARDOUS ACTIVITY, and possible physical injury might occur to me as a result of my participation. I agree to assume the full risk, including risk which is not specifically foreseeable, of any injuries, including death, damages or loss, regardless of severity, which I may sustain as a result of participating in any and all activities connected with or associated with the World Horseshoeing Classic in which each event shall include forging metals and shoeing live horses. Without limitation this release and waiver shall include acts or omissions and negligence, whether they be my own or those of anyone else. In consideration of the right to participate in the World Horseshoeing Classic, I hereby waive any and all rights or claims I may have as a result of participation in the World Horseshoeing Classic competition against its organizers, its employees, members and volunteer staff, all individuals assisting in instructing, participating, and conducting these activities. I hereby fully release and discharge them from any and all claims resulting from injuries, including death, damages or loss, which may accrue to me or my heirs arising out of or in any way connected with my participation in the World Horseshoeing Classic. I agree to abide by all rules and regulation of the competition and agree to use proper sportsmanship. I acknowledge and represent that I have read and fully understand this Release and Waiver of claims, and that, if I had any question or issues about it, have asked those questions and have been provided with full and complete information which was fully responsive.
